TOUR PROGRAM

Day 1: Addis Ababa to Arba Minch – Lake Chamo Boat Safari

Take a morning flight from Addis Ababa to Arba Minch, where your guide will welcome you upon arrival. After checking into your hotel, embark on a boat safari on Lake Chamo, home to enormous Nile crocodiles, hippos, and a variety of bird species. Visit the famous “Crocodile Market,” where large crocodiles bask along the shores. In the evening, enjoy dinner at a lakeside restaurant and relax at your hotel.

Day 2: Arba Minch to Turmi via Konso – Hamar Tribe Experience

After breakfast, depart for Turmi, making a stop in Konso, a UNESCO-listed cultural site known for its intricate terraced agriculture and unique wooden totems marking the graves of warriors. Continue driving to Turmi, the heartland of the Hamar people, and arrive in the afternoon. Spend time with the Hamar tribe, learning about their traditions, hairstyles, and beadwork. If the timing is right, you may witness a bull-jumping ceremony, an important rite of passage for Hamar men. Overnight in Turmi.

Day 3: Excursion to Karo Tribe – Omo River Views

In the morning, travel to Korcho, a Karo village overlooking the Omo River. The Karo people are known for their intricate body painting using white chalk, which they apply in elaborate patterns for ceremonies and daily life. After exploring the village and enjoying panoramic views of the Omo River, return to Turmi in the afternoon. You may visit a Hamar village for further interaction or enjoy the traditional Evangadi dance, performed by young Hamar men and women. Overnight in Turmi.

Day 4: Turmi to Jinka via Dassanech Tribe

Depart early for Omorate, a remote town near the Ethiopian-Kenyan border, to visit the Dassanech people. Cross the Omo River by canoe to reach their village and observe their semi-nomadic way of life. Afterward, drive to Jinka, the largest town in the Omo Valley, passing through the scenic savannah and acacia landscapes. In the afternoon, visit the South Omo Research Center Museum to gain deeper insights into the diverse ethnic groups of the region. Overnight in Jinka.

Day 5: Mursi Tribe Visit – Flight to Addis Ababa

Early in the morning, take a drive to Mago National Park to visit the Mursi tribe, famous for the lip plates worn by women and the bold warrior culture of the men. Spend time interacting with the community and learning about their customs before returning to Jinka. After lunch, transfer to Jinka Airport for your afternoon flight back to Addis Ababa, marking the end of your Omo Valley adventure.
